Love God ... Love Each Other ... Love the World

Letter from Rob Hatfield

Woo Hoo! I am excited to announce the addition of Josh Karl to our ministerial staff. This past Sunday, June 3, the church voted unanimously for Josh to become our student and college pastor. Josh is planning to begin work with us on July 1st and will be able to jump into action quickly as he will lead our 7th and 8th graders to Centrifuge the following week. Between now and then Josh, his wife Megan, and their two children Evie and Harper will be working hard to transition from life in New Orleans to life in Mobile. Please be in prayer for them as they work through the logistics of housing, schools, and moving.

Woo Hoo! Vacation Bible School has been an awesome success this week! We had well over 150 children participate in games, crafts, recreation, songs, and snacks all committed to proclaiming clear Bible stories that tell about God's great love for them. There were many families represented in our VBS throngs who are not involved in any church, so I ask you to join me in praying that God will use the seeds planted this week to do great things within each family. It is my hope and prayer that VBS will have served as a way to introduce them to the love of God through the love of the Spring Hill Baptist Church Family.

In addition to the prayer requests mentioned above, I will add two more. At the end of this week my family will join many others at Shocco Springs for the annual "Camp of Champions" led by the Alabama Baptist Children's Home. This camp is a time of training for all foster parents licensed through the children's home and is a time of playing and celebration for all children of foster families (both foster and biological). Please pray the week will not only be informative for all foster parents but that the many foster and biological children who come will have a time of refreshing and celebrative joy based in God's love.

After the camp concludes, Laurie and I will be flying to the Southern Baptist Convention held in Dallas, Texas next week. I encourage you to stay informed about the many things occurring within our convention. You can follow what occurs at the convention here www.sbc.net. In particular, please pray for the presence of the Holy Spirit as evidenced by the fruits of the spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control) to be evident in every action taken and word spoken among the messengers and those who are in leadership.
