

Letter from Rob Hatfield

This year's theme for Vacation Bible School (also known as VBS) is "Game On!" There will be all kinds of sports imagery, illustrations, games, activities, crafts and Bible stories related to the central message of Christianity - the good news that God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. When children encounter and understand the key message that God loves them enough to send His son to die for their sins, the "Game IS On" in their hearts. Please join me in praying that all the children who come in contact with the good news of the gospel during VBS will be receptive to His enduring love. Pray also for all the workers who will be diligently loving our children in words and actions throughout the week.

In addition to praying, I hope if you have children or grandchildren you have already signed them up for VBS. If not, it is not too late! Just follow the link www.shbc.cc and sign up online. Our children are also welcome to invite their friends to come and experience the joy of VBS at Spring Hill with us. As a reminder, our VBS is Sunday (June 3) - Wednesday (June 6) nights 5:30-8:00 p.m. and is open for all 4K - 6th grade children.

Our new prospective Student and College Pastor Josh Karl has begun meeting with various groups of people on our campus. On Wednesday night he was able to spend time with our student ministry leadership as well as lead our students during their Wednesday night worship service. Josh will be back on Saturday afternoon for some time with our student parents at 4:00 p.m., followed by a cookout at 5:00 p.m.. Please look inside this newsletter for more information on Josh's background. I look forward to his sharing his testimony in both of our worship services on Sunday morning and am excited about the possibility of him joining our ministry team at Spring Hill. At the conclusion of our services on Sunday we will have a Special Called Business meeting for the purpose of calling Josh Karl as our Student and College Pastor.

Please join us as we serve the women at McKemie Place on Thursday, June 7. Bring your favorite salad, side dish or dessert to add to our fried chicken dinner. We will gather in the Activities Center parking lot at 5:30 p.m. and depart at 5:45 p.m. Your good food, your presence, your smiles, your prayers and other expressions of God's grace mean so much!
