¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was in the beginning with God. ³ All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. ⁴ In him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

IMPRESSED

“The highest reward for man’s toil is not what he gets for it but what he becomes by it.”— John Ruskin

Each of us whether high school freshman or senior adult need to think about Ruskin’s statement. Our culture has gotten into a habit of asking, “What is in this for me?” rather than, “What can I give?”

But a wise man once said, “Make a careful exploration of who you are and the work you have been given, and then sink yourself into that. Don’t be impressed with yourself. Don’t compare yourself with others. Each of you must take responsibility for doing the creative best you can with your own life.” (Gal. 6:4-5)

By pouring our effort into our work, pouring our lives into others’ lives, humbly serving God and man we become something other than our selfish egos.

Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves and their own righteousness and treated others with contempt: “Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.’ But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’” Luke 18:9-14

I’ll see you Sunday.
