Looking Toward This Weekend’s Parent Summit

In just a few days, we are going to “Spill the Beans” at our Parent/Grandparent Summit on Saturday, August 27. We all want our days with our children to be a smooth brew, but honestly, we all have days – sometimes many days – that just feel like a grind. Have you ever thought about how the ages & stages of children can be compared to coffee?

First, you have the infant years. This is the “you can never have too much coffee in your life” stage as babies hang on your every word like sips of a favorite blend, and they try their very best to imitate every facet of you while snuggled in your arms.

Then we have the toddler years. We can liken this to the “spilled coffee” stage complete with a burned tongue, burned fingers, coffee puddled on the floor, broken mugs - with every warning from you being met with a resounding “NO” from your toddler.

The elementary years could be described as the reprieve. This is where parents typically get to enjoy “the grind.” Children at this stage usually trust what you have to say. They enjoy being in your presence and enjoy having conversations with you.

Then, hold on!!! The middle school years are next. This could be described as coffee with an attitude, it’s a good day to brew, “expresso” yourself, for the LOVE of coffee, or don’t talk to me before I’ve had my coffee...EVER. There’s no need to elaborate on this stage. We’ve all been there.

Then we get to those sunset years in high school where the “world is just a few sips away.” It’s definitely the time to “drink in the moment” as parents and grandparents.

The cup empties fast, and we want to savor the moments. So, how do we make sure “the best part of waking up” is the time we have with the children and grandchildren God has entrusted into our care? This year’s Parent/Grandparent Summit is designed to help you to do just that. We so hope you will grab a cup and join the conversation this Saturday, August 27, from 4:00-8:15 p.m. You can sign up online at www.shbc.cc/register through Thursday evening. See you Saturday where we’ll be “spilling the beans.”

HANDS & HEARTS

Hands & Hearts is a NEW Ministry allowing individuals to serve the Lord Jesus Christ by lending “hands and hearts” to ministry needs through SHBC. We meet on the 3rd and 4th Tuesdays in room 204 in the Activity Center.

Since inception, Hands and Hearts has ministered to the Children’s Educational and Music Ministries at home and supplied handmade sewing kits for mission trips to foreign fields. All are welcome (you do not need to sew) to “sow” seeds of faith as God stretches our hearts by using our hands to serve our church and the world with handmade items or acts of service unrelated to sewing or crafts.

“But by love, serve one another.” Galatians 5:13

Brazil Mission Trip 2023

The Brazil 2023 trip has been scheduled, and there is room for you! I’m looking for 15-18 people (at least 2 doctors, or PA’s, or RN’s), ages 17 and up, that feel the urgency of spreading the gospel. The trip will take place July 1-13, 2023. There will be a general interest meeting on Sunday, September 11, at 5:00 p.m. in room 236 in the SHAC. If you’re somewhat interested, perhaps a wee bit curious, or, if you’d like to join us and be a part of an amazing mission trip to the Amazon Valley, then join me at the meeting and check it out! If you have any questions call Eddie Smith at 251-209-9692, or shoot me an email at eddsmithjr@comcast.net.
